

Execution of CDSA Search Warrants

Conduct a situational risk assessment of any investigation where Fentanyl or other potent opioids may be present.

Consider having an emergency response medic or paramedics engaged in case of potential exposure.

Members conducting search warrant executions must wear personal protective equipment as defined by the risk assessment. High risk operations should be conducted by trained clandestine lab officers only.